This musical score is for the piece 'The Great Wall' by John Adams. It is a vocal soloist piece with a large instrumental ensemble. The score is written for a vocal soloist (Rn) and a variety of instruments including two vibraphones (vb), harp (hp), koto (kl), oboe (ob), horn (hn), viola (va), cello (cb), and voice (vc). The vocal line is in English and includes lyrics such as 'and I am all alone once more. Miss Fitt! am I then invisible, Miss Fitt? Is this creature so becoming to me that I merge in to the masonry? that's right. Look closely and you will finally disappear.' The score is in 3/4 time and features a complex arrangement of instruments, including a large string ensemble (not fully shown in this excerpt), woodwinds, brass, and percussion. The vocal line is written in a high register, and the instrumental parts are arranged to provide a rich, textured background for the voice. The score is written in a standard musical notation style, with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 3/4. The tempo is marked 'Allegretto' and the mood is 'Moderato'. The score is a full orchestration of the piece, with all parts written for their respective instruments.

The musical score is for the song "The Rose Tree" and is divided into three systems. The vocal soloist (Rn) part includes lyrics and musical notation with various performance markings such as "FITT", "855", "ROON.", "3", "4", "860", "rit", and "FITT". The vocal band (vb) part consists of a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The piano accompaniment (hp) part consists of two staves (treble and bass clef) with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The instrumental parts include:
